Sea Gull Sports Soar High

The most successful fall sports season in school history capped an incredible 2000 calendar year for Salisbury athletics. The Sea Gulls won five of six possible Capital Athletic Conference championships and placed an all time best four teams in NCAA Tournament competition.

Conference champions were men's and women's soccer, field hockey, volleyball and men's cross country. The field hockey team advanced to the NCAA Final Four, the women's soccer team to the NCAA Elite Eight, the men's soccer team to the NCAA second round and the volleyball team to the NCAA first round. Additionally, the football team capped its season with a victory in the annual Regents Cup game at historic RFK Stadium.

Since the start of the new millennium, the Sea Gulls have won 10 conference titles and had 12 of 19 teams qualify for the NCAA Tournament. In addition, 12 players have earned all-America honors and six coaches have been tabbed as CAC coaches of the year.

Sea Gulls Claim Regents Cup With Football Win Over Frostburg

The Sea Gull football team claimed the second annual Regents Cup with an 18-8 win over cross state rival Frostburg at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C., on Saturday, November 11. QB Mac Mollet (86 yards) and FB Reggie Boyce (80 yards) each rushed for one touchdown and PK Paul Jacko added field goals of 21 and 22 yards for the Sea Gulls, who finish the year 5-5 overall. The SSU defense enjoyed one of its most dominant performances of the season by limiting Frostburg to170 total yards on the day.

Leimann Honored with Alumni Award

Alumni Association President Hugh Hanson and University President Janet Dudley-Eshbach present Karen Leimann (right) with Alumni Appreciation Award.

Alumna Karen Leimann was recognized at SSU's December commencement with the prestigious Alumni Appreciation Award.

Leimann, an elementary teacher and administrator in Wicomico County for over 20 years, received both her bachelor's (1973) and master's in education (1991) from Salisbury State. She is currently the principal at Prince Street Elementary School in Salisbury.

As a member of Salisbury State's Alumni Association board of directors since 1991, Leimann has held the offices of secretary, vice president and president (1997-99) and played a key role on the committee for furnishing the Alumni House, which opened in June 1996. She continues to serve on the alumni Board of Visitors, a president's advisory board, which was formed during her term as Alumni Association president.

"During her tenure as president she worked hard to generate alumni awareness and appreciation on campus," said Roy Perdue, director of alumni relations, "with homecoming attendance and alumni giving both rising dramatically."

A member of both Delta Kappa Gamma and Phi Delta Kappa, Leimann is also involved with the Wicomico Historical Society. She is also a past member of the Junior Auxiliary Board at Peninsula Regional Medical Center and the Salisbury Wicomico Arts Council.

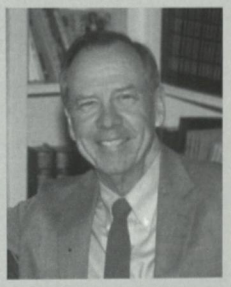
New SSU Alumni Association Board of Directors

Julie Duer Clayton (B.S. '84) is a senior account executive with Delmarva 47 News and WBD/ Delmarva Broadcasting. She is a member of the board of directors of the United Way and is business coordinator for the Chamber of Commerce Business After Hours program. She is also an active member of the Worcester Preparatory School gala committee and a member of Ducks Unlimited. A native of the Eastern Shore of Virginia, she and her husband, John, now live in Salisbury.

Kerrie Anne Jones Bunting (B.S. '92) is a senior research interviewer with the Salisbury Eye Evaluation Project of the Johns Hopkins University. She and her husband, Tim, live in Ocean Pines. Her father, Dr. Thomas Jones, is the dean of the Henson School of Science and Technology.

Dornell L. Woolford (B.A. '88, M.A. '93) is instructor of developmental education at Wor Wic Community College. He is a member of the Developmental Education Association of Maryland, Lower Shore Chapter of the American Red Cross, Bay Shore Services, Rotary Club of Salisbury and the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland. He lives in Federalsburg, MD.

Dear Fellow Alumni,



During fall 2000, we enjoyed a wider variety of alumni activities and programs than ever before, resulting in greatly increased attendance and support for SSU. It was exciting to see the alumni participate in Festival for University Neighbors (FUN) Day, the Board of Visitors meeting, Regents Cup football game, alumni chapter activities and Career Week. Even more gratifying was to see record numbers of alumni return to campus for the 75th Anniversary Homecoming/ Reunion Weekend. To cap off a successful year, SSU ranked first among all University System of Maryland institutions in the rate of alumni giving.

Communication from the Office of Alumni Relations to our 26,000 alumni has become greatly enhanced during the past year due to new and improved online communication capabilities. Check out our Web site at www.ssu.edu/alumni/ to discover what alumni activities are planned in your area.

Also browse through our online alumni photo album, add your name and e-mail address to the online directory (or update your information if you're already in the directory), or register for the Work Information Network (WIN). From the alumni home page you can link to an interactive virtual campus tour, as well as many other hot links.

Please note that beginning with this edition, we are mailing In Touch only to alumni who are not in the online directory. All those alumni online will be sent an e-mail telling them where to access the current issue on the SSU Web site.

This is an exciting time on our campus—a new President, a new year and, pending legislative approval, a new name, Salisbury University. Why not consider becoming more involved in the Alumni Association? I think you'll find, as I have, the rewards are great.

Again, I thank you for the opportunity of representing you during this 75th anniversary year.

Sincerely,

Hugh K. Hanson '68
President, SSU Alumni Association

SSU Annual Fund: Making a Difference in SSU's Future

1999-2000 Campaign Yields Record Numbers

The 1999-2000 Annual Fund Campaign concluded on June 30, 2000, with a record number of alumni gifts to the University. More than 3,300 SSU alumni made gifts to the 1999-2000 annual fund (see list on page 15). This is a dramatic increase over the '98-'99 campaign. The increase was driven by a tremendous amount of first-time donors giving to the annual fund. SSU alumni's commitment of giving was recognized as the highest percentage of alumni participation (18.6 percent) among all members of the University System of Maryland.

The University is very grateful to John Moseman '82 and his wife, Barbara, for the generous gift on behalf of each member of the Class of 2000 to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. The Moseman's gift was made to congratulate the class on their accomplishment and to emphasize that involvement in the Annual Fund Campaign at any monetary level is very important. Under Moseman's leadership as chair of the 2000-01 campaign, the Office of Alumni Relations looks to continue building upon last year's success.

The classes of 1958 and 1959, through their participation and generosity, held very successful reunion class gift campaigns. Carole Kirkwood Bozman, the chair of the Class of 1959's campaign, and her fellow classmates established the Dr. William H. Wroten Jr. Scholarship in Maryland History. Dr. Wayne Smith, the chair of the Class of 1958's campaign, and his fellow classmates donated a teak table and chairs to the Rose Garden behind Holloway Hall and made a generous donation to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. The University wishes to thank both of these classes for their support and involvement. We hope that you will continue to support the programs that you have established through your reunion class gift campaigns.

Career Week 2000

Fifty-five alumni from various parts of the eastern U.S. visited the campus during the second week of November to talk about life after SSU. Panel presentations, workshops and "Alumni in the Classroom" visits were designed to offer students first-hand information about career paths.

TEHA Presents Scholarships

Garth Jones, sanitarian with the Worcester County Environmental Program, and Laura Mooney '95, Tidewater Environmental Health Association (TEHA) president, recently presented a $5,356.40 check for SSU environmental health scholarships to Dr. Elichia A. Venzo, Environmental Health Program director. Others at the presentation included $1,000 TEHA scholarship recipient Amanda Zych '01 of Poolesville, MD, and Roy S. Perdue, SSU director of alumni relations. Proceeds from TEHA's Wallace Q. French annual golf tournament benefit SSU environmental health students. When this scholarship program was established in 1987, TEHA helped create the first undergraduate environmental health major at a university in Maryland.

Annual Fund Web Site

Alumni are now able to get information on the SSU annual fund via the internet at www.ssu.edu/annualfund/. The site provides information on ways of giving, matching gifts, reunion class gift campaigns, Varsity Club and secure online giving.

2000-01 Reunion Class Gift Campaign

The classes of 1950, 1960 and 1975 are holding reunion class gift campaigns during the 2000-01 Annual Fund Campaign. The Class of 1950 campaign, co-chaired by Levin Heath and Walt Potter, is raising money to commission an oil painting of 1950s Holloway Hall. The painting will be presented to the University once the class has raised the needed amount for the painting.

The Class of 1960 campaign, co-chaired by Rose Brous and many of her classmates, is raising money to purchase teak lawn and patio furniture for the Alumni House patio and garden. The Class of 1960 will present their gift to the University at the fifth anniversary of the Alumni House in June.

The Class of 1975 campaign is progressing nicely. The class has not yet selected a project that their gift will benefit. Alumni with project ideas or who are interested in making a gift to their reunion class gift campaign should contact Michael Jessup, director of annual giving, at mhjessup@ssu.edu or 410-548-2074.

Lecture Series Features Preeminent Speakers

SSU's celebration of its 75th anniversary continues this spring with a month-long lecture series featuring four of America's most thought provoking and challenging writers, culminating with a presentation by journalism icon Daniel Schorr.

Opening the series is Dr. William Dunham, nationally-known mathematical historian and author of Journey Through Genius: The Great Theorems of Mathematics and The Mathematical Universe, named Best Mathematics Book of 1994 by the American Association of Publishers. His talk is on Wednesday, February 28, at 7 p.m. in the Wicomico Room in the Guerrieri University Center.

Tim O'Brien, author of In the Lake of the Woods and National Book Award-winning Going After Cacciato, speaks on Wednesday, March 7, at 7 p.m. in the Wicomico Room. O'Brien is particularly renown for his moving essay in The New York Times about his return to Vietnam, "On a Rainy River."

Alfie Kohn, author of Punished by Rewards: The Trouble with Gold Stars, Incentive Plan, A's, Praise and Other Bribes, argues that the use of rewards is counterproductive in raising children, teaching students and managing workers. He will discuss those and other controversial topics on Tuesday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Holloway Hall Auditorium.

Veteran newsman and senior analyst for National Public Radio Daniel Schorr completes the speaker series on Wednesday, March 28, at 7 p.m. in Holloway Hall Auditorium. He will become the second Presidential Lecturer at SSU, following Pulitzer and Noble prize-winning author Toni Morrison who initiated the Presidential Lecture Series last year.

All talks in the 75th anniversary lecture series at SSU are free and open to the public.

SSU Breaks Ground on $37 Million Science Building

Before a festive audience of friends of the University and members of the campus community, Maryland Gov. Parris Glendening broke ground this fall on Salisbury State's new $37 million science building, the biggest capital project in the State of Maryland for this fiscal year.

At 145,500 square feet, the new science hall will be the largest academic facility on campus and one of the largest science buildings in the state.

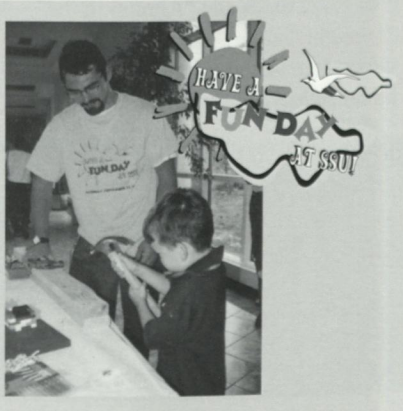
The three-story brick structure will house the Henson School and also the Guerrieri Laboratory Center, endowed by the Guerrieri Family Foundation of Ocean City, supplemented by the State of Maryland's Private Donation Incentive Program.

The science building is expected to open for classes in fall 2002.

Chesapeake Bay Conference a Success

Salisbury State hosted a national conference, "Chesapeake 2000: The Chesapeake Bay in the 21st Century," this past October. Participants from across the nation as well as SSU faculty focused attention on the Bay and its rich history, its environmental and economic impact and consequences, tourism and social issues and the future development of the Bay Country.

With participants from across the nation, speakers for the conference included Tom Horton, author and environmental affairs writer and columnist for The (Baltimore) Sun; U.S. Congressman Wayne Gilchrest; and Jim Hightower, columnist and radio personality.



A FUNday Was Had by All: Despite rainy skies, some 2,000 people showed up to celebrate SSU's 75th birthday on FUNday (Festival for University Neighbors) this past September. With over 100 activities offered, community members enjoyed games, contests, sports, exhibitions, art, lectures, live music and children's activities.

SSU Helps Shore Residents Get Moving

Salisbury State University and its regional partners have been awarded over $2 million from the State of Maryland and federal sources to promote the expansion of public transportation services on the Lower Eastern Shore.

The funding comes after more than a year of work by a diverse coalition of community leaders, including the Lower Shore Private Industry Council, SSU, Wicomico Transit, Worcester County Ride, Somerset County STRideS and the departments of Social Services of Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester counties. The project has been funded through the Maryland Mass Transit Administration, Maryland Department of Human Resources and Federal Transit Agency with the support of the Eastern Shore delegation and U.S. Senators Paul S. Sarbanes and Barbara A. Mikulski. The goal of the initiative is to create more public transportation options for citizens needing to travel to work, medical appointments, leisure activities and other critical destinations.

The new funding will allow the coalition to actually implement, on a pilot basis, expanded regional services and connections, as well as continue the transportation planning and consensus-building process.

Dean Bebee Resigns

Dr. Richard F. Bebee, dean of the Perdue School of Business since 1991, announced that he will be resigning from that position at the end of the current fiscal year (June 30, 2001).

"I have been considering pursuing new challenges for some time now," said Bebee, who has not ruled out the possibility of returning to SSU next fall in either a teaching or administrative capacity. "I've had a great run here at the Perdue School, we've accomplished a great deal in the past 10 years. The average tenure length for deans nationally is three years, and I've clearly exceeded that."

The search for a new dean is underway.

Bilingual Education Grant Awarded

The U.S.Department of Education recently awarded a $735,984 grant to the Fulton School for the "Bilingual Education: Training for all Teachers" program. The program is a partnership effort between public schools in the eight Maryland and two Virginia counties on the Eastern Shore, as well as Chesapeake College and Eastern Shore Community College.

The purpose of the project is to increase the supply and quality of teachers prepared to serve limited English proficiency (LEP) students in the public schools in the 10 counties on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, many of which are culturally homogeneous, isolated and lack funding.

New Graduate Program

Salisbury State announces the formation of a Master of Science in applied health physiology. The curriculum, which emphasizes both theory and practice in the preparation of administrators, technicians and supervisors, provides students with the opportunity to read, study and discuss a wide range of theories and ideas related to health and physiology as well as the opportunity to practice the technical, administrative and supervisory skills of a health care provider.

Show House Supports Exciting Symphony Season

The Salisbury Symphony Orchestra at Salisbury State University plays to packed houses for its concerts, but this October it filled a house of a different sort when it sponsored the Lower Shore's first ever Decorators Show House in Salisbury.

The former Allen House at the corner of Camden Avenue and Dogwood Drive was transformed for the Decorators Show House, which showcased the talents of local decorators and gave those who toured the house the opportunity to buy pieces of the house's decor and take home valuable design ideas. Thanks to the Show House proceeds of over $23,000, the SSO is presenting its fullest season yet.

Sea Gull Century
Salisbury State University

Century Is No. 1

SSU's 2000 Sea Gull Century bike ride was recently named the No. 1 League of American Bicyclists sponsored cycling event based on number of participants. The announcement was included in the February 2001 Bicycling magazine.

The Sea Gull Century is an annual event which attracts some 7,000 riders to the area and is the single largest one-day tourism event in Wicomico County with an economic impact of over $1.5 million.

For more information on this year's Sea Gull Century, Saturday, October 13, contact the SSU Public Relations Office at 410-543-6030.

Hall of Fame Adds Three

Salisbury State added three new members to its Athletics Hall of Fame during Homecoming Weekend festivities in October. The 2000 inductees are Kathy Schuyler '72, Joe Mammano '85 and Terri Sharpless '90.

Schuyler was a three-sport star in field hockey, basketball and lacrosse, and a MVP in all three sports during her senior year. She was captain on the lacrosse team as a junior and senior and captain of the field hockey team as a senior. She also earned postseason all-star honors in field hockey as a junior and senior.

One of the most prolific offensive linemen to play for the Sea Gull football team, Mammano was a four-year starter at guard who paved the way for some of the most successful runners in team history. He earned first team all-America honors as a senior in 1984.

An overpowering pitcher on the softball team who finished with a 31-12 record during her four seasons, Sharpless ranks second in team history with 251 career strikeouts while also ranking among the all-time leaders in wins, innings pitched, complete games and earned run average.

The Hall of Fame's newest members are (from left) Kathy Schuyler '72, Joe Mammano '85 and Terri Sharpless '90.

The Hall of Fame was initiated in 1985 to honor those who have made outstanding contributions to Salisbury State's athletic heritage. The addition of these three inductees brings the Hall's membership to 70.

Selection for the Hall of Fame is the highest honor that the University can bestow upon one of its former student-athletes. To be eligible, an individual must have graduated from the University at least 10 years earlier or be retired as a coach.

All-American Reunion

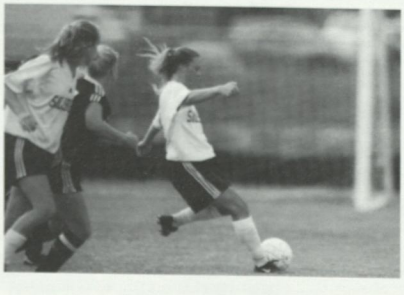
The four All-Americans in Salisbury men's soccer history were recently reunited with the man who had coached all four players. SSU concluded the 2000 season with a 17-3 record while winning its second straight Capital Athletic Conference championship and earning its second NCAA Tournament berth.

Varsity Club Boosts Athletics

The SSU Varsity Club is a volunteer booster organization dedicated to enhancing the SSU athletic program through membership and special events.

In the classroom and on the field, the 1999-2000 season was very successful for Sea Gull teams:

- Our 19 varsity sports had a combined winning percentage of 68 percent.
- Nine teams competed in national tournaments.
- SSU earned the Capital Conference All-Sports Trophy for the second consecutive year.
- Eleven student-athletes were named All-Americans.
- Academically, 211 of our 425 student-athletes earned a GPA of 3.0 or higher in the spring 1999 semester.
- Six coaches were recognized as conference Coach of the Year winners: Robb Disbennett (baseball); Margie Knight (softball); Bridget Benshetler (women's basketball); Dawn Chamberlin (field hockey); Gerry DiBartolo (men's soccer); Jim Jones (men's cross country)
- In the fifth annual Sears Directors Cup rankings for intercollegiate sports, released at the end of the 1999-2000 academic year, Salisbury finished 18th overall, its highest placement ever. That places SSU in the top 5 percent from among the over 400 member institutions that compete in NCAA Division III athletics.



If you are interested in joining the Varsity Club or would like more information, contact Ralph Murray, Varsity Club director, at 410-677-5099 or remurray@ssu.edu.
